

INTR 100

POPULAR CULTURE AND UNIVERSITY WRITING

Combining ENGL 115 and MEDI 115 in an integrated learning environment, this course emphasizes reading, research, writing, and critical thinking. Students will explore the core concepts of popular culture and university writing and research. This is a 6-credit course: you will receive credit for ENGL 115 and MEDI 115 (including 3 credits of the Degree English Requirement).

You can take this course in either the Fall or the Spring:

Fall:

F18N01: Monday and Wednesdays, 8:30 - 11:30 am

F18N02: Tuesday and Thursday, 8:30 – 11:30 am.

Spring:

What is popular culture?

Does it affect how you see the world or yourself?

Is it trash or something more?

How does it connect to your relationships or your job?

Why do

THIS COURSE IS TEAM TAUGHT BY TWO PROFESSORS.
QUESTIONS?

Contact

Doug.Stetar@viu.ca or

Melissa.Cox@viu.ca