What it is:

The Love of Learning program is open to all adults who have completed grade 12 English or equivalent. There are no prerequisites to enrol in courses, but looking at course descriptions will help prepare you for the level of discussion within the classroom. The program costs $99 per 3-credit course (plus student's union, student activity, and student service fees), with fees waived for students who are 65+ (except for the student's union fee).
